

Koeshall's Word Hunting Adventures LLC
AFRICAN SAFARI CLOTHING & EQUIPMENT LIST

You are allowed 2 checked luggage bags plus carryon. You are allowed 50lb per bag . You are also allowed 1 carry- on bag, plus your camera bag, purse, or backpack. We suggest a camo backpack that you can also use in the field, but also use it to carry personal items for your flight.

Rifle Hunters

One Mid-Range Caliber Rifle

.270, .308, 7mm, 30-06, .338

With Variable scope, 2-7, 3-9 etc.

With rifle sling

60 rounds of ammunition (see our tips sheet for best type)

Soft gun case, or sock case

Airline approved locking hard case

2nd gun (optional) *must be a different caliber than first rifle-gov. regulation

Archery Hunters

Bow- well tuned

Double bow case- airline approved, such as SKB, lockable (will have room in it for extra gear)

Arrows-a minimum of 18 with matching broadheads

PVC arrow tube that fits in your luggage bag

Bow mounted quiver

5 Blunt points for practice and small game/birds

5 practice points

Rangefinder and spare battery

Padded bow case for transport (optional)

2 releases or extra fingers or tabs

Knee pads for stalking/kneeling shots

Face mask or face paint

Wind direction powder

Bow repair and tuning kit (call us for our list)

Scentlock suit (leafy worked extremely well)

No-scent personal hygiene items

Clothing

3 Pairs of cotton trousers (camo is ok also)

3 Shirts – cotton, long sleeve (camo is ok also)

1 Medium weight jacket (camo is ok also)

1 Hat – your choice

5 Undershorts

5 Undershirts

5 Handkerchiefs

- 5 Pairs of Socks
- 1 Belt
- 1 Pair of comfortable camp shoes
- 1 Pair of lightweight leather boots, similar to bird hunting boots
- 1 Fleece pullover or wool sweater
- 1 Pair of lightweight gloves
- 1 Pair light weight long underwear

Laundry is done in camp on a daily basis; the iron content in the water is high and whites will become “dingy or yellowed”. I recommend khaki, green or dark colors made of cotton, or camo clothing, and you may want to supply your own No-Uv detergent for the camo.
